

GERMAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE: VILLAGE EGYPT

Continuity and Change in Regional Milieus

Cairo, 4-5 November, 2010

German Archaeological Institute Cairo, 31, Sh. Abu el-Feda
11211 Cairo-Zamalek, Tel.: +20 (0)2 2735-1460/-2321
sekretariat@kairo.dainst.org, www.dainst.org/kairo

Program

Thursday, 4 November, 2010

09:00-09:30 Stephan Seidlmayer: Introduction

09:30-10:15 Christopher Eyre: Pharaonic Villages: their Physical and Social Landscapes in Diachronic Perspective

10:15-11:00 Laure Pantalacci: Palace, Hamlet and 'ezba. Remarks about the Settlement Patterns in Dakhla at the End of the 3rd Millennium BC

Coffee Break

11:30-12:15 Stephan Seidlmayer: Reconstructing Rural Settlement and Rural Society. Archaeological Approaches

12:15-13:00 Anita Kriener: Stone Vessels in 4th and 3rd Millennium Cemeteries at Naga el-Deir

Break

14:30-15:15 Jochem Kahl: „... dotted with many a village“ – Fragmentary Evidence around Asyut

15:15-16:00 Johannes Auenmüller: New Kingdom Provincial Elites – Aspects of the Territoriality of a Social Group

Coffee Break

16:30-17:15 Fayza Heikal: Echoes from Antiquity: Religious Life in Egyptian Villages

17:15-18:00 Wolfgang Mayer: Settlement Continuity at Medinat Habu / Kom Lola: A Win-Win-Situation

18:00-18:45 Jan Moje: Residence and Regions: Aspects of Local Governance in Third Intermediate Period Egypt

19:00

Reception in the garden of the Institute

Friday, 5 November, 2010

09:30-10:15 Cornelia Römer: Integrating the Newcomers – Politics and Village Life in 3rd Century BC Fayûm

10:15-11:30 Stefan Esders: The late Roman pagus. A Comparative Study on Egypt and the Western Provinces

11.30-12:15 Sebastian Richter: Kastron Jême. An „Urban“ Village on the Theban West Bank and its Environs in Byzantine and Early Islamic Times

